In 2017, Georgia will have six meets televised live on the SEC Network as part of the most expansive coverage in the network's history.

Following a 10-minute cooling off period at home meets, Georgia head coach Danna Durante and requested student-athletes will be available for interviews in the Equestrian locker room, which is located outside tunnel 4. Interview requests will be collected by a UGA Sports Communications representative during the final meet rotation.

There will be postmeet satellite feeds provided by the University of Georgia one hour after most home meets. Contact the Sports Communications Department for additional information.

2017 Season Outlook

Intro to 2017

After qualifying for their third Super Six in four seasons under the leadership of head coach Danna Durante, the Georgia Gymdogs look to take the next step in 2017.

The difference will come from a new approach in 2017, said Durante, with an emphasis on depth and pushing teammates to be their best that will strengthen the entire roster.

"I see the team fully believing that everybody has an opportunity and a responsibility," said Durante. "The opportunity is that there are 10 routines that need to be replaced from last season. That's 10 open spots. Somebody has an opportunity on every event, and I see them all working to be better and try to jump in where they weren't last year or to hold on to their spots."

The team has raised the bar since getting another taste of the biggest stage of collegiate gymnastics, and the culture around the gym now demands that every member of the team brings their best every day in the gym. That has led to productive, focused, driven practices that Durante expects will pay dividends when the season opens on January 6 at LSU.

Once again, a challenging slate of meets awaits the Gymdogs during the season, but that has become a norm with the program as it looks to test itself against college gymnastics' elite teams.

"Over the last several years we've had one of the hardest schedules, if not the hardest schedule," said Durante. "We've always started tough with competition. I think it helps when you have a moment or a day when you might want to relax or give in to the fact that you're tired or a little weary. We're going to be ready to go."

As One

A major key for the Gymdogs this season has been a fresh approach of looking at the function of the team. With a roster that is loaded with potential but has been overshadowed by past upperclassmen, the coaches and athletes have maintained the importance of improving as a collective unit, rather than looking for individuals to fill the void left behind from the graduation of a trio of All-Americans in 2016.

The theme for this year - "As One" - reflects that mindset.

"The standard for where we compete and how we compete has been raised from where we were last year," said Durante. "I see them challenging each other in how they train, the mindset they have when they retrain and how they reset when things aren't going well. That is the 'As One' message. We can't do this individually and get where we want to go. We might have some success, but we won't go as far individually as we'll go together."

Vault

The vault lineup for 2017 will be highlighted by senior Ashlyn Broussard, junior Gigi Marino and sophomore Sydney Snead, who all look to build on their success from a season ago. Snead, a native of Raleigh, N.C., had the best average of all returners from 2016, and she has been working diligently at further improving her performances. Lauren Johnson, the 2014 SEC vault champion, will provide a steadying, veteran presence to the event as well. Freshman Rachel Dickson and senior Morgan Reynolds also will look to make an impact on vault as it promises to be a strong event for Georgia.

Bars

Similar to vault, Georgia will be replacing two routines on bars in 2016. Durante stressed that bars has seen the most improvement of any event during fall practice, and the team will look to keep making strides in the spring. Snead, Natalie Vaculik and Rachel Schick all have been consistent performers on bars, and all signs point to that being the case this season. Dickson, a three-time level 10 national bars champion, also is primed to play a key role in the event. Reynolds looks to swing for the Gymdogs for the first time in her career this season after adding bars to her repertoire, and Hayley Sanders and Gracie Cherrey round out a lineup that is loaded with potential.

Danna Durante enters her fifth season as head coach in 2017.

Beam

The Gymdogs must replace three beam routines from 2016, the most of any event. Veteran competitors in the event include Broussard, Schick, and Vivi Babalis. Babalis, the Montreal, Quebec, Canada native, drew praise from Durante for improving her practice intensity from years past, and her hard work has paid dividends in her performance. Freshman Sabrina Vega also can crack the beam lineup, an event that the former U.S. National Team member excels in. Dickson and Reynolds, who inherited the traditional Gymdog moonwalk, round out the lineup on beam.

Floor

Floor was the team's strongest event in 2016, and the 2017 bunch works to build on that success. Four different Gymdogs feature "E" difficulty tumbling passes - Snead, Vega, Reynolds and Gigi Marino. Upperclassmen Beth Roberts and Babalis both drew praise for their diligent work in the event as well, and Dickson has flashed a floor presence that may prove invaluable to the team as it looks to take the next step toward a championship in 2017.

A team-first approach highlights a championship mindset that the Gymdogs are looking to employ in 2017.

Head Coach Danna Durante

Danna Durante

Head Coach
Fifth Season

Danna Durante completed her fourth season as Georgia's head coach in 2016, taking the Gymdogs to their third Super Six in four seasons under her direction.

The Gymdogs finished sixth nationally in 2016 with two individual national champions - Brandie

Jay on vault and Brittany Rogers on bars - the program's 41st and 42nd such titles. Three gymnasts claimed a total of 10 All-America honors, while five gymnasts earned All-SEC recognition. Eight Gymdogs were named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll in 2016.

Georgia finished ninth nationally in 2015 and won a NCAA regional for the 24th time in program history. Four Gymdogs garnered All-America honors, and five Georgia gymnasts - second most of any team in the conference - earned SEC honors. Seven Georgia gymnasts were named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll in 2015.

In her second season as Georgia's head coach in 2014, Durante led the Gym Dogs to a fifth place finish nationally - their best finish since the 2009 national championship season. A total of 16 All-America honors were earned by seven different Georgia gymnasts in 2014, including three first team honors on the balance beam. Under Durante's direction, Lindsey Cheek was named the first SEC Event Specialist of the Year.

The 2014 Georgia squad posted a 197.000 or higher in each home meet for just the second time in program history, and the Gymdogs posted a total of 14 wins against ranked opponents, navigating through what was rated as the nation's toughest schedule.

In 2013, Durante guided the Gymdogs back to the NCAA Super Six for the first time since 2009, and Georgia also achieved its highest ranking in four years. Brittany Rogers claimed a share of the SEC bars and beam titles, and Shayla Worley also shared the beam title. UGA notched wins over Alabama and Utah for the first time since 2009.

Georgia won the 2013 NCAA Corvallis Regional with the second-highest score of any team in the six regionals and entered the NCAA Championships as the No. 4 seed. The Gymdogs' RQS of 197.260 was its highest since 2008. Georgia also excelled in the classroom in Durante's first season in Athens as 12 Gym Dogs earned SEC Academic Honor Roll honors, and three postgraduate scholarships were awarded.

Durante, who served as head coach at California-Berkeley for the 2012 season and was the 2007 National Assistant Coach of the Year, was named head gymnastics coach at the University of Georgia on May 23, 2012.

With Durante at the helm, California-Berkeley experienced considerable improvement, as the Golden Bears posted an average score of nearly a point higher than the previous year. A total of 23 personal records were set by Cal gymnasts in 2012, and eight gymnasts earned Pac-12 All-Academic honors. She also led the Bears to their highest overall score in five years.

Prior to her stint at California-Berkeley, Durante spent nine seasons at the University of Nebraska as the Cornhuskers' beam coach and choreographer. She joined the Nebraska staff as an assistant coach in 2003, then served as associate head coach from 2007-2011.

Nebraska gymnasts earned a total of 23 All-America honors during Durante's time in Lincoln, and she helped guide the Cornhuskers to a fourth place finish at the 2011 NCAA Championships.

Before joining the Nebraska staff, Durante was an assistant for five years at Washington, where she helped lead the Huskies to the 1999 NCAA West Regional title and a seventh-place finish at the NCAA Championships. She was named the West Regional Assistant Coach of the Year in 1999 and 2002.

Before joining the Washington program in 1998, Durante spent two years working as a coach with the Arizona Sunrays and Royal (Fla.) Gymnastics Club.

A native of Tulsa, Okla., Durante was a two-time member of the U.S. Gymnastics Federation National team in 1988 and 1990. She qualified for the 1988 Olympic Trials and won top honors in the all-around in 1986 and 1987 at the South African Cup. She competed internationally in Germany, France, Bulgaria and South Africa, and was also a two-time member of the U.S. Gymnastics Federation National Team. In addition, Durante served as a USAG Elite Level Judge from 1996 to 2000.

Durante graduated from Arizona State in 1995 with a bachelor's degree in Exercise Science/Exercise Wellness. She was an All-Pac-10 gymnast for the Sun Devils from 1992-95, and scored five perfect 10s. Durante and her husband Joe have a daughter, Samantha, and two sons, Jaxson and Jordan.

Jay Hogue
Assistant Coach
Fifth Season

Jay Hogue, who spent the bulk of his coaching career in club gymnastics before joining the college ranks, is now entering his fifth season on the Georgia staff.

The 2016 season was a banner year for Hogue and the Georgia bars lineup as the Gymdogs claimed a NCAA Individual Champion, Brittany Rogers, on the uneven bars. Rogers spearheaded a group that placed two on the All-SEC team - Rogers and Rachel Schick - and one on the Freshman All-SEC team - Sydney Snead. As a unit, Georgia averaged a 49.188 on bars in 2016.

Under Hogue's direction, a pair of Georgia gymnasts earned All-America honors on the uneven bars in 2015. Brittany Rogers earned first team honors and placed second at the NCAA Championships, while Chelsea Davis was second team All-America. Rogers also achieved regular season All-America status on bars.

In addition, two Gymdogs placed in the top-four on bars in Georgia's session at the 2015 SEC Championship. A Georgia gymnast took top honors on the uneven bars in seven meets, and UGA gymnasts had five scores of 9.95 or higher on bars in 2015. The Gymdogs averaged a higher score on bars than on any other event in 2015, and their season-high score on any of the four events came on bars (49.575).

In 2014, Hogue coached Georgia's bars squad to a No. 1 national ranking for each of the last 10 weeks of the season, and he was named NACGC/W Southeast Region Co-Assistant Coach of the Year. Five UGA gymnasts were ranked in the top-25 nationally on bars in 2014, including three in the top-10. Georgia scored an SEC Championship record 49.7 on bars and a 49.6 in the NCAA Regional - UGA's highest mark in a regional since 1998.

In 2013, Hogue helped direct Georgia's efforts on vault and bars, where the Gymdogs finished the season ranked eighth and third in the nation, respectively. Under Hogue's guidance, Georgia gymnasts won a total of 10 All-America honors on vault and bars in 2013. Three different Gymdogs - Brandie Jay, Lindsey Cheek and Chelsea Davis - earned first team honors on vault and competed in the NCAA Individual Event Finals, and four Georgia gymnasts earned All-America honors on bars. Chelsea Davis was a first team All-American on vault and bars, and she spent a majority of the 2013 season ranked No. 1 in the country on bars. Also in 2013, Brittany Rogers shared the SEC title on bars.

Before joining the Georgia staff in the summer of 2012, Hogue served as an assistant coach at the University of Denver for two years.

Hogue primarily coached the Pioneers' vault and bars squads, and was named the 2012 North Central Region Co-Assistant Coach of the Year. Under his direction, Denver gymnastics earned a total of eight WAC event specialist of the week honors on vault and bars in 2012. Hogue's vault squad tied the school record with a 49.425 against Air Force.

Denver's Moriah Martin was named the North Central Region Gymnast of the Year, in large part due to her success on vault. Under Hogue's watch, she finished ranked in the top-10 nationally on the event.

In Hogue's first season at Denver, the Pioneers knocked off Arkansas, Nebraska and Ohio State, and were ranked No. 2 in the North Central Region.

A professional member of USA Gymnastics for 25 years, Hogue spent most of his career at Orlando Metro Gymnastics, where he helped develop optional gymnasts and coached at the U.S. Classics and Junior Olympic National Championships. Prior to his time at Denver, Hogue coached for three years at Broadway Gymnastics in Oviedo, Fla.

Hogue graduated from the University of Central Florida in 1997 with a bachelor's degree in liberal studies with an emphasis in engineering and physics with a minor in mathematics, and earned his associate of arts degree from Valencia Community College in 1993. A native of Orlando, Fla., Hogue and his wife Lisa have two sons, Pierce and Colin.

Philip Ogletree
Assistant Coach
Fifth Season

Philip Ogletree, who has more than a decade of coaching experience in the Southeastern Conference, has completed four seasons on the Georgia staff. He helps direct Georgia's efforts on vault and floor, two events in which the Gymdogs have excelled.

Ogletree guided Brandie Jay to a historic run on vault in 2016, as the Fort Collins, Colorado native won both the SEC and NCAA vault titles, the first gymnast to accomplish the feat since 2011. Between vault and floor, Georgia claimed six All-America honors in the 2016 season, spread amongst seniors Jay (two First-Team vault), Brittany Rogers (two Second-Team vault) and Mary Beth Box (two Second-Team floor).

Four different Gymdogs claimed top honors on vault throughout the 2015 season, led by Ashlyn Broussard with four event titles. Brandie Jay garnered first team All-America honors on vault. In addition, UGA matched its highest floor score since the 2010 season. Mary Beth Box was a first team All-American on floor and competed in the NCAA Individual Event Finals.

Georgia finished the 2014 season ranked in the top-10 on both vault and floor. Ogletree was named the 2014 NACGC/W Southeast Region Co-Assistant Coach of the Year. Under his direction, freshman Lauren Johnson won the SEC vault title with a 9.975 in just her second career vault. The Gymdogs also scored a 49.625 on vault vs. Denver in 2014, which tied for the highest vault score in the country throughout the regular season.

In 2013, Ogletree coached bars and floor, where the Gymdogs finished the 2013 season ranked third and 10th in the nation, respectively.

Seven All-America honors were earned by Georgia gymnasts on bars and floor in 2013. Chelsea Davis, who spent most of the season ranked No. 1 nationally on the uneven bars, earned first team All-America honors on bars, while Brittany Rogers, Shayla Worley and Christa Tanella received second team accolades. Rogers shared the SEC bars title. Under Ogletree's direction, Noel Couch was a second team All-American on floor in 2013.

Georgia posted the highest team bars score in 12 meets in 2013.

Before coming to Georgia in the summer of 2012, Ogletree served as an assistant coach at LSU for 12 seasons.

Ogletree was a key part of LSU's success from 2001-2012, primarily coaching the Tigers on the uneven bars while also serving as the recruiting coordinator.

During his tenure under D.D. Breau at LSU, Ogletree guided the Tigers to 12 of the top-13 bars scores in school history, including a school record 49.650 in 2002. His bars squads ranked in the top-10 nationally each year from 2004-10, including a No. 3 ranking in 2005 and a No. 4 ranking in 2009.

LSU gymnasts earned a total of 16 All-America honors on the uneven bars under Ogletree's watch, including a school-record three gymnasts in 2005 and 2010. In 2010, two LSU gymnasts finished in the top-five on bars at the NCAA Individual Event Finals, and the Tigers posted the second-highest bars total in the NCAA prelims.

Ogletree, a member of the UGA men's gymnastics team from 1980-82, was named the NCAA Central Regional Assistant Coach of the Year in 2004 and 2005 and helped lead the Tigers to the NCAA Super Six in 2008 and 2009.

A native of Atlanta, Ogletree also previously coached at the Georgia Gymnastics Academy in Lawrenceville and the Atlanta School of Gymnastics in Tucker. He arrived at LSU in the fall of 2000 with 18 years of coaching experience, including 11 with Level 10 gymnasts in the state of Georgia.

Ogletree graduated from Georgia State in 1992 with a degree in early childhood education. He and his wife Jill have two children, Bridgett and Jake.

Gymdogs Finish Sixth in 2016

The Georgia gymnastics team finished the 2016 season ranked sixth nationally after making its third trip to the Super Six in four years under the direction of head coach Danna Durante.

Georgia, which entered the postseason ranked ninth, advanced through the Athens NCAA regional to secure a spot in Fort Worth, Texas at the NCAA Championships. The Gymdogs then performed well in their two meets in the Lone Star State, narrowly missing fifth overall in the Super Six.

Postseason Honors

Four Georgia gymnasts earned All-America honors in 2015. Brittany Rogers claimed NACGC/W Regular Season honors on bars, and she was one of three Georgia first team NCAA All-Americans. Mary Beth Box and Brandie Jay were first team All-America on floor and vault, respectively. Chelsea Davis was second team bars All-America.

Five Georgia gymnasts - second most of any team in the conference - earned 2015 SEC honors. Box, Gigi Marino, Rachel Schick and Rogers were named to the All-SEC Team, while Natalie Vaculik and Marino were named to the All-Freshman Team. Florida led the way with six gymnasts earning SEC honors, followed by UGA with five, then Alabama and LSU with four each. Georgia and Florida had the most representatives on the All-Freshman team with two. The All-SEC and All-Freshman teams are based on results at the SEC Championship.

Event-By-Event

Vault

The Gymdogs' year on vault was highlighted by Jay's national championship and Rogers claiming the team's first 10 since 2009. Rogers' perfect routine came on the west coast in a tri-meet at UCLA with Stanford. The score spurred Georgia to its best vault rotation of the year with a 49.525 as a team. The Gymdogs claimed 10 vault titles during the season, with seven from Jay and three from Rogers while the team averaged a 49.2773 on vault in 2016.

Bars

Rogers' individual title on bars capped an impressive season for the Gymdogs in the event. Georgia averaged a 49.1883 on bars in 2016 with a season-best 49.4 against top-ranked Oklahoma. As a team, Georgia had one All-American (Rogers) and three All-SEC honorees (Rogers, Schick, Snead) in the event. Georgia won eight bars titles in the season with four from Rogers, two from Jay, and one each from Snead and Vaculik.

Beam

Beam was an area of concern for the Gymdogs through the early part of the schedule, but Georgia bounced back and finished strong in the event by taking its best road score of the year at the Super Six with a 49.3625 after hitting all six routines. Georgia's best beam score came in an upset of LSU at home, a 49.425. Georgia won six event titles in beam this year with three from Rogers, two from Box and one from Ashlyn Broussard. As a team, Georgia averaged a 48.8016 on beam through the season.

Floor

Georgia's second-best event in 2016 was floor as the Gymdogs averaged a 49.2758 in the event. Georgia took its best floor score of the season with a 49.625 to come from behind and defeat the then-top ranked Florida Gators, a rotation that included three consecutive 9.9s. Georgia won 13 event titles on floor, with Box leading the way with six. Gigi Marino followed with four, Jay added two and Rogers took one.

A strong 2016 season ended in the Super Six.

There are many words that could be used to describe the Gymdogs at the University of Georgia. Without question the one constant word that has earmarked the program is success. Seventy-two gymnasts have earned 377 All-American awards, and Georgia gymnasts have won 42 individual NCAA titles. Georgia leads the country in number of NCAA individual titles.

In collegiate gymnastics, no program boasts more excellence, consistency and rich tradition over a span of a quarter century than Georgia, and the woman behind the success was Suzanne Yoculan.

Twenty-five years, ten NCAA Championships, 16 SEC Championships, 40 individual titles, 72 All-Americans and an absolute plethora of rabid gymnastics fans later, it appears that the Gymdogs have...well more than accomplished the lofty goals which Suzanne Yoculan set for the program in 1984.

In her first season, Yoculan led Georgia to its first-ever appearance in the NCAA Championships, which resulted in a modest ninth place finish. But it was only the beginning. Three years later in Salt Lake City, the Gymdogs stood atop the awards stand as NCAA Champions. Two years after that in Athens, Ga., the Gymdogs had their second national championship, winning it in front of the hometown fans and holding off top-seeded UCLA by a margin of .05. And four years later in 1993, Georgia won the NCAA's with arguably the greatest team ever. At the 1993 NAAs in Corvallis, Ore., Georgia became the first collegiate team to score a 198.0, a feat that would not be accomplished again for another three years.

Five years later in Los Angeles the Gymdogs would once again emphatically make their mark on the collegiate gymnastics world, winning their fourth NCAA Championship by the largest margin of victory in more than ten years and finishing the year with an unblemished mark of 35-0.

Not to be outdone, the 1999 team would continue the standard of excellence set forth by its predecessors, but not without a little bit of drama. The 1999 Gymdogs won the program's fifth title and like the 1993 and '98 teams before them, did it by going undefeated at 32-0.

In 2005, not many could have predicted the run the Gymdogs made to their sixth national title. Georgia lost four consecutive meets during the year and nearly missed qualifying to nationals with a disastrous regional meet that included four falls on the balance beam. But the team did qualify, and entered the NCAA Championships seeded 12th out of 12 teams. When the Gymdogs left Auburn, Ala., they walked out as champions.

One word says it all when discussing Georgia's national championship run of 2006: domination. At the conclusion of the regular season the Gymdogs were the top ranked team on every event, something Georgia had not accomplished since 1998. The 2006 Gymdogs won the program's seventh national title and recorded an undefeated record of 36-0 for the fourth undefeated season in the program's history. No other team has done it once.

Georgia captured its third consecutive NCAA national title and eighth overall by defeating the field in Utah's Huntsman Center in 2007 with a 197.850. It was the fourth-highest score of any national champion since the Super Six format was implemented in 1993. The Gymdogs did it despite losing two of their top gymnasts to season-ending injuries.

The Gymdogs once again proved to be the best team in the country as they won their fourth straight national title with a 197.450 at Stegeman Coliseum in 2008. It was the fourth time the NAAs were held in Athens and Georgia's second time winning at home. UGA concluded the year with a 31-2 record, winning all three postseason titles -- SECs, Regionals and NAAs.

The Georgia gymnastics team found the perfect way to send Coach Yoculan into retirement in 2009: winning another NCAA title. The Gymdogs claimed the program's 10th national title to become the first team to reach double figures. Georgia also won its fifth straight title to close the career of its venerable coach in style. Senior Courtney Kupets, who won her third all-around title, paced the Gymdogs with a career-best four-event score of 39.9. Kupets had 10.0s on bars and vault as well as 9.95s on beam and floor.

After winning her fifth straight national title in 2009 and 10th overall, Yoculan retired and worked the next four years as a color analyst for ESPN's nationally televised college gymnastics meets. She served as an analyst for the NCAA Championships when ESPN began broadcasting the event in 2012. She also served as a color analyst for SEC meets televised by CSS.

No other program in the country maintained the level of success in 26 years that Yoculan produced during her tenure in Athens. She guided Georgia to an NCAA-best 10 national championships (including the last five in a row), 16 Southeastern Conference titles and 22 NCAA Regional crowns. Yoculan's teams placed in the nation's top three in 21 of her last 22 years.

Yoculan's work was recognized by her peers as she was chosen as the National Coach of the Year five times (1987, '93, '98, 2006, '08) and the SEC Coach of the Year eight times. (1986, '87, '99, 2001, '02, 04, '08, '09). She ended her career with an overall record of 834-117-7.

A constant throughout her 10 national championship seasons was a coach who knew what it took, someone with the experience and charisma to take a team to the top level and keep it there. That is what Yoculan provided the Georgia gymnastics program with for 26 years.

In 19 of her 26 years as head coach at Georgia, Yoculan led her team to either an SEC title, an NCAA title or both. That means she won a championship in more than 70 percent of her tenure, not to mention finish at least third in the conference, the nation or both all 26 years. Not many coaches in gymnastics or any sport can boast numbers like that.

The key to her teams' successes, according to Yoculan, was developing the proper chemistry where all individuals understand and embrace their roles and then having proper communication among those involved.

Through the perfect balance of chemistry and communication, Yoculan led her share of top-notch gymnasts through the program. There was at least one Gym Dog standing atop the podium as an individual event winner in 14 of her last 19 years.

The Gymdogs enjoyed as much success academically as athletically under Yoculan. In 2009, seven Gymdogs earned a place on the SEC Academic Honor Roll and two were chosen for the Academic All-American Team.

Yoculan claims the academic achievement is a direct result of proper communication with the team about how important academic excellence is coupled with athletic excellence.

In addition to competitive success, Yoculan created a culture of mass exposure for the program. Despite the humble beginnings, she brought attention to the Georgia gymnastics program which is virtually unparalleled anywhere else in the country. It took more than good teams to increase average attendance at Georgia gymnastics meets from less than 200 in 1983 to an average of nearly 10,000 fans per meet in 2008.

Yoculan communicated about her program in almost every way imaginable. She is a dynamic speaker, traveling throughout the country to convey her experiences in eating disorders among female athletes, fitness, sports promotion, personal motivation and leadership. Most of all, she is asked to speak about developing team chemistry and its importance in accomplishing success.

A championship display honoring Suzanne Yoculan and the Georgia gymnastics program was unveiled on the Stegeman Coliseum concourse in October 2015.

Yoculan did a weekly TV show during the season, which discussed past meets and gives news and insights on several facets of Georgia gymnastics. "The Suzanne Yoculan Gymdogs Show" was broadcast nationally on CSTV and throughout the Southeast on CSS and Fox Sports Net. She also released her first book on collegiate gymnastics titled "Perfect 10," which chronicles the history of Georgia gymnastics and college gymnastics across the nation.

Yoculan fostered growth and ever-increasing support of the Ten-0 Club, the Georgia gymnastics booster club, which is the largest in the nation with more than 800 members. Before the 1996 season, she initiated the establishment of the first renewable season ticket program in the nation for a women's collegiate team. More than 5,000 season tickets are sold each year now. As a step toward Georgia gymnastics' financial self-sufficiency, season ticket holders contribute to a scholarship endowment fund in order to retain the same seat location every year.

An active member of the Athens community, Yoculan was the honorary chair for the Northeast Georgia's United Way 1998-99 campaign. In 2003 and 2005, Yoculan and the Gymdogs teamed up with the Athens Area Habitat for Humanity to help in the construction of an all-women's project.

After former Gym Dog Talya Vexler was diagnosed with breast cancer, the team joined Athens Regional Medical Center to raise awareness for breast cancer and the new ARMC Breast Health Center. Yoculan led the drive that raised $100,000 for the new center, which was dedicated in February of 2005. In recent years, Georgia has had a "Pink Out" meet to increase exposure of breast cancer and to continue support ARMC by raising money through auction items like a pink scooter.

Yoculan and the Gymdogs also teamed up with Special Olympics to teach gymnastics to special-needs children once a week. In November of 2001, Yoculan was roasted for charity, an event that raised more than $25,000 for three worthwhile causes. She won the Atlanta Athletic Club's 2008 W.R. McGriff Award, which honors recipients who exemplify excellence in sports while demonstrating characteristics of an upstanding citizen and role model. Yoculan also was inducted into the prestigious Blue Key National Honor Society in 2008. She was inducted into the State of Georgia Sports Hall of Fame in 2010.

In April 2014, "Sarah and Suzanne" aired as part of ESPN Films' SEC Storied series. The documentary chronicled the careers of Yoculan and Alabama head
